

Ideas for speakers, panellists and videos

Depending on your event you may wish to engage a speaker or provide a panel discussion and perhaps include a facilitator or MC.

If you are hosting a smaller event or even as part of a larger event it's a good idea to showcase a video from our list supplied. These range from explainers about the Uluru Statement from the Heart and as explorations of Truth Telling that can help inform and engage an audience.

Speakers, panellists and videos all provide a more engaging point of view to begin your own conversations and can be used as a catalyst for discussion and deepening an understanding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples history, culture, beliefs and opinions.

Contacting Speakers

There are a number of key figures who can be approached to lead a discussion on the Uluru Statement from the Heart. However, they are often extremely busy and hard to get hold of. We recommend that you connect with your Local Aboriginal Land Council, Local Reconciliation Group and even your Local Council to discuss possible speakers for your event. You may also wish to get in touch with your local University's Indigenous Departments as they too have speakers who may be willing to attend a community or workplace event.

Dean Parkin's TED Talk - Duration: 19 mins 47 secs

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xB-31jD4XcA>

In May 2017, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, coming from all points of the southern sky, made the Uluru Statement from The Heart. Building on decades of activism in pursuit of constitutional reform and self-determination, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples reached out to the nation in a heartfelt effort to create a movement for a better future. An experienced independent management consultant, Dean has worked across the public, corporate, not-for-profit and political sectors. He has advised a range of clients on strategy, engagement and co-design, including the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet, Palladium, Coles, the Referendum Council and Jawun. In addition to extensive experience in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander affairs, he has commercial experience both in Australia and the UK. Dean is from the Quandamooka peoples from Minjerribah (North Stradbroke Island) in Queensland. He was involved in the negotiations leading to a Native Title determination in 2011 and continues to work with his community on this journey. Dean has a Bachelor of Arts (Politics and Journalism) from the University of Queensland. This talk was given at a TEDx event using the TED conference format but independently organised by a local community. Learn more at <https://www.ted.com/tedx>
