

HOW CAN MY SCHOOL SUPPORT RECONCILIATION?

Reconciliation requires us all to BE BRAVE and MAKE CHANGE.

This year for National Reconciliation Week, we invite you to take braver and more impactful action. Find out below for how your workplace can learn, act and share to progress the movement towards a reconciled, just and equitable Australia.

Learn

- Download the Reconciliation in Education Kit <https://reconciliationnsw.org.au/reconciliation-in-education/>
- Book Cultural Competency Training for staff <https://reconciliationnsw.org.au/cultural-competency-training-2/>
- Develop a reading and video library of resources for your teachers
- Display Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags, maps and artworks around the school
- Have Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander books and stories in your library
- Learn about local Indigenous history and sites of significance
- Share Our Pride is a great place to start learning about First Nations Peoples <http://shareourpride.org.au/>
- Display an Aboriginal languages map in the classroom <https://www.aecg.nsw.edu.au/product/a1-aboriginal-australia-languages-map/>
- Incorporate awareness raising of First Nations history and perspectives in all school subjects

Act

- Organise Reconciliation NSW's Pathways to Reconciliation Workshops. For more information, go to <https://reconciliationnsw.org.au/pathways-to-reconciliation-workshops/>
- Join the Schools Reconciliation Challenge <https://reconciliationnsw.org.au/schools-reconciliation-challenge/>
- Hold events for NAIDOC week, Reconciliation Week, National Apology Day, National Sorry Day
- Recognise the Traditional Custodians of Country on the school website and email signatures
- Invite local Elders, First Nations artists and Storytellers to your school
- Visit local Aboriginal sites of significance
- Join Narragunnawali: Reconciliation in Schools to assist with curriculum development and learning activities <https://www.narragunnawali.org.au/curriculum-resources>
- Contact your Aboriginal Education Consultative Group regional rep to ensure gains in education for Aboriginal people and their communities. For more information, visit <https://www.aecg.nsw.edu.au/>
- Have an Acknowledgement of Country at the beginning of meetings and important school events

Share

- Organise Reconciliation NSW's Pathways to Reconciliation Workshops. For more information, go to <https://reconciliationnsw.org.au/pathways-to-reconciliation-workshops/>
- Join the Schools reconciliation challenge <https://reconciliationnsw.org.au/schools-reconciliation-challenge/>
- Hold events for NAIDOC week, Reconciliation Week, National Apology Day, National Sorry Day
- Recognise the Traditional Custodians of Country on the school website and email signatures
- Invite local Elders, First Nations artists and Storytellers to your school
- Visit local Aboriginal sites of significance
- Join Narragunnawali: Reconciliation in Education <https://www.narragunnawali.org.au/curriculum-resources>
- Contact your Aboriginal Education Consultative Group regional rep to ensure gains in education for Aboriginal people and their communities. For more information, visit <https://www.aecg.nsw.edu.au/>
- Have an Acknowledgement of Country at the beginning of meetings and important school events