

BE BRAVE* and MAKE CHANGE for National Reconciliation Week 2022

We are asking you to share your commitment on video. Be brave.

- Commit to make change!
- Record your commitment on video!
- Post to social media (during NRW – 26 May to 3 June)!
- #BeBraveMakeChange #NRW2022 #RECNSW2022

“During Reconciliation Week I will...”

- read (choose a book: Song of the Crocodile by Nardi Simpson, Dark Emu by Bruce Pascoe, Welcome to Country by Marcia Langton, The Yield by Tara June-Winch, Talking to my Country by Stan Grant, Bila Yarrudhanggalangdhuray (River of Dreams) by Anita Heiss, Sand Talk by Tyson Yunkaporta)
- sign up for these campaigns to advocate for change (choose a campaign: #RaiseTheAge #CloseTheGap #ChangeTheRecord #JustReinvest #FamilyMatters #FromTheHeart #UluruStatement)
- call out racism where I see it
- donate to an Aboriginal charity
- have a conversation about the Uluru Statement from the Heart with...
- write to my local member to support a referendum for a First Nations Voice in the constitution
- start a Reconciliation Action Plan for my school or business
- provide/ask for Cultural Competency training at my workplace
- attend a local protest for First Nations rights
- approach my local council for appropriate Aboriginal signage in my LGA
- become a member of Reconciliation NSW

Helpful Tips

Record your video with your phone in the landscape position (sideways).
Make sure you are well lit/but not in full sun.
Send it to info@reconciliationnsw.org.au or text it to 0450 188 554

Join us on Social Media

 /reconciliationnsw
 /NSWRC
 /NSWRC

BE BRAVE. MAKE CHANGE.
NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK 2022