

Viewing List

National Indigenous Television (NITV)

- Living Black- Hosted by Karla Grant (2003- Present). A SBS NITV program covering current issues affecting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, with a new 2026 season.
- The Point- Hosted by John Paul Janke (2018- Present). A SBS NITV program that centres First Nation voices and elevates the priorities of Indigenous communities.

Films & Documentaries

- The Dark Emu Story - Directed by Allan Clarke (2023). An ABC documentary exploring the impact and debate surrounding Bruce Pascoe's Dark Emu.
- The Australian Wars - Directed by Rachel Perkins (2022) . A SBS docu-series that examines the Frontier Wars and retells Australia's history through truth-telling.
- Firestarter: The Story of Bangarra- Directed by Wayne Blair and Nel Minchin (2021). A documentary about Bangarra Dance Theatre, following three Aboriginal brothers who transformed a small dance group into a leading First Nations cultural company.
- Incarceration Nation- Directed by Dean Gibson (2021). A NITV documentary that explores the systematic treatment of Indigenous peoples, and the past and present factors behind high incarceration rates.
- After the Apology- Directed by Larissa Behrendt (2017). A documentary on the ongoing removal of Aboriginal children and the community response to government policies.
- Rabbit Proof Fence- Directed by Phillip Noyce (2002). Based on a true story of three Aboriginal girls who escape forced removal in 1931, the film illustrates the impacts of the Stolen Generation.